

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Fred W. Triem,

Appellant,

v.

Alaska Airlines, Inc., Dan Kane, and Estate of Helen Lingley,

Appellees.

Supreme Court No. S-17679

Order

Motion to Extend Time to File Printed
Brief and Excerpt

Date of Order: 7/31/2020

Trial Court Case No. 1PE-12-00047CI

Appellant, Fred W. Triem, moved on 7/20/2020 for a 35-day extension of time in which to file his printed opening brief and excerpt of record, explaining that he intends to request by separate motion that the brief include as a two-page appendix, a complaint the superior court made about him to the Alaska Bar Association in April 2018. Mr. Triem does not explain why he waited until after his brief was accepted for filing to decide to include the Bar complaint as an appendix. He acknowledges that it was not a part of the trial court record. He has not filed a separate motion explaining his request, although his printed brief and excerpt were due on 7/20/2020.

On consideration of Mr. Triem's 7/20/2020 motion for enlargement of time and Alaska Airlines, Inc.'s 7/30/2020 opposition,

IT IS ORDERED:

The motion is GRANTED IN PART. Mr. Triem's printed opening brief — without the proposed appendix — and excerpt shall be filed no later than 8/17/2020.

Entered at the direction of an individual justice.
